FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

Thunsbay, June 22-6 P. M. The stock market was very dull but firm at the first board this morning. New York Central closed & higher than at the second board yesterday, Hudson River & an Southern M, Cleveland and Phisburg, 2M, Rock Island 34, Illinois Gentral I, Erie 3. Government securities were firm. Coupon five-twenties advanced 34. Ten-forties sold at 9614, an advance of 34 upon the 2. Ten-torties soid at poy, an anyance of 24 upon the last sale. Cleveland and Pittsburg was the most active steck on the list under purchases of nearly ten thousand shares by a clique. At the open board at one o'clock the market was heavy and prices were % a % per cent lower. At the second regular board prices were a shade higher, but the market was stagnant. Eric closed % lower than at the first board, New York Central %, Reading %, Michigan thern M. Illinois Central M. Cleveland and Pittsburg 16 1/2 higher. Government six per cents were heavy. Compon five-twenties were & lower. Ten-forties were steady. The demand for the latter from the new national banks as a basis of circulation keeps the At the open board, at one o'clock, the market stronger, and an advance of & a & took place in of the shares. New York Central sold at 93, Erie Hudson River 108%, Michigan Central 103%, Rock Island 98%, Michigan Southern 63%, Cleveland and Phusburg 6834, Fort Wayne 9534, Cumberland (s. 10) 4134. Later the market was steady. The volume of business in the street is very limited, owing to the absence from town of some of the brokers and operators and an indispo-sition on the part of those remaining to make new con-tracts pending their summer absence in the country. The condition of the money market is, however, favor-able to speculations for a rise. Call leans are made freely at five per cent on railroad securities, and as low as four in very limited supply, and the best grade is taken at 8 a 7 per cent, the next best varying from 7% to 9.

Gold has been on the whole steady, although its firm ness during the morning was not fully maintained in the afternoon. Cash gold remains scarce, and an eighth per cent per day is the general rate at which it is loaned, transactions have taken place as low as 100 % a %. Mercantile bills are quoted at 109 a 34, and bankers at short sight 110%.

The appointment of Mr. Van Dyck, the Superintendent of the Bank Department of this State, to succeed Mr. John A. Stewart as Sub-Treasurer, is announced from Washington on official authority. This gives great satisfaction to the financial community here, who were apprehensive that the Seretary of the Treasury might fall into the error of giving the office to a politician who, without understanding his duties, might at the same time be tempted to use his position for the promotion of party and other purposes. Mr. Stewart retires to assume the presidency of the New York Trust Company at the end of the month, and he will carry with him the respect and esteem of all who have had

Mr. Jacob Russell, who has just resigned the position of cashier of the Sub-Treasury, had occupied it for sixteen years, and it is stated that he will soon receive an appointment in connection with all the Sub-Treasuries. The waste of trouble and saliva which is at present volved in complying with the Internal Revenue act, with regard to stamps, is a source of great annoyance to business public, and one which calls for the establishment of a stamp office, such as exists in the capitals of each of the kingdoms of England, Ireland and Scotland. Stamped paper is bought from the stamp offices there and kept for sale by the law scriveners and licensed dealers in stamps throughout the country. Bankers, perchants and others send blank check books in large quantities to the stamp offices to be stamped with a press ark and kept for use. This process involves a mere indentation of the paper, and dispenses with the use of ink and gum. At the same time it obviates the risk of stamps which are affixed coming off, which in the case of legal instruments is important. By the use of private marks also in the stamp, it can be ed at any time in what year the impression was made, and in this way the forgery of important docu-ments has been detected. Where the stamp office furnishes the paper, an extra charge is in-variably made for the same, but where the applicant for the stamps sends his own paper the net tax only is charged. We recommended the subject to the attention of the Secretary of the Treasury and the ission of three now sitting to inquire into the ways and means of improving the revenue and simplifying taxation. There should be a stamp office in the capital of the Internal Revenue Department it could be done with little or no expense beyond that necessary for pur-

The rule land down above will be so modified as to require the assessment and collection of the first taxes, which become due after the establishment of assessment divisions in the particular locality. Whenever assessments are to be made, based on transactions which may have been carried on in a depreciated currency, it will be proper for the assessor to ascertain the amount of the incorae or value of saless or receipts in lawful money of the United States, according to the best information he can obtain as to the average value of such depreciated currency for the period covered by the assessment. The duties upon cotion and spirits turpentine are, by a special provision of the statute, made payable by the person in whose hands the articles are first found by officers of the Internal Revenue. With reference to those articles, therefore, the rule laid down will not apply, but assessments will be made wherever they are found. Whenever any person holds, as a purchaser, any articles which, under the Internal Revenue laws, may be transported under bond, and desires to transport the same to any Northern port or place, he may apply to the assessor to have the amount of tax ascertained and determined. The proper examination having been had, the assessor will certify the amount of duties thereon to the collector, and the collector will thereupen grant a permit for their removal, after the execution of a bond for their storage in a bonded warehouse, such permit and bond being in the form required by the regulations for the establishment of bonded warehouses. On or before the tenth day of each month the assessor will transmit to the office of Internal Revenue a statement showing the amount of duties thus certified during the month preceding, and the collector will, on or before the same date, transmit a descriptive schedule of all bonds thus taken by him in the tive inquiry for Liverpool, and higher rates were demanded. The inquiry was checked by the enhanced views of the shipowners, however, and the engagements, as a general thing, were at the rates paid y-storday. The engagements were, to Liverpool, 24,000 bushels wheat, mainly at 35d; per steamer, 43 bales cotton at 5dd, and 3,500 boxes cheese at 40s. To London, 200 tons linseed clicake, in bags, at 17s. 6d., and 80 hdds. tobacco at 20s. and 30s. We heard of no charters. Hay was firm for shipping, under a fair demand from the government, at $1.

How.—The market was quiet, with small cales at from 10c. to 80c.

Molasius was without noticeable change. We note cales of 300 hhds. Cuba muscowado at 50c. a 56c. Porto Bido was quiet and unchanged.

Provenova.—Receipts, 1,607 bbla ports, 34 packages out meats, 345 do. lard. The demand for pork was moderate, and prices again materially declined—new mess selling as low as $24 25, but subsequently selling at $25, at which price the market left off. The sales, cash and regular, were about 7,000 bbls, at $24 25 a $25 for new mess—closing at the outside figure—$18 a $10 for prime, and $18 50 a $19 50 for prime mess. There was nothing done for forward delivery, the speculative manua having been checked by the departure of one of the leading spirits for parts unknown. Beef was duil, with askes of 300 bbla at from $10 to $16, including all kinds. Beef hams were quiet. 100 bbls sold at $25 a $27 50. Bacon was duil, and prices were hominal. Cut meats were in fair demand, and prices were farm. The sales were a shade firmer. The sales were $200 packages, at 11c. a 14c. for shoulders, and prices were a shade firmer. The sales were 800 bbla, at 15%c. a 19c.; prime kettle was held at 19%c. Butter and cheese were steady.

Participus.—The market remained quiet, but prices steady.

Permoneum.—The market remained quiet, but prices were firm, especially for refined in bond, which was wanted for export. The sales were about 4,000 bbla crude on the spot and for all this month and July at 34½c. a 35c.; 1,100 do refined, in bond, at 52%c. a 53c. on the spot and, soller's option, July. Court of General Sessions.

Before Recorder Hoffman.

Soon after the court opened yesterday morning the Grand Jury presented a number of indictments and resumed the discharge of their duties. The prisoners were afterwards arraigned to plead. Some of the accused per sons pleaded guilty, while the majority, on stating that they were not guilty, were remanded for trial. Thus far the Grand Jury have found a very large number of bills, which have been disposed of with considerable despatch, so that there is a fair prospect of clearing the prison be fore the summer vacation. District Attorney Hall, though not appearing in court, gives his personal and constant attention to all the cases, and the arrangement of his office are such as to greatly facilitate the transact tion of the criminal business of the county.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY. James O'Connor and John Reynolds, jointly indicted for robbery in the first degree, pleaded guilty to grand larceny, and were remanded for sentence. The complainant was Willard E. Dudley, residing at 77 Robinson street, who stated in his complaint that on the night of the 11th inst, while he was in a saloon in Greene street, the prisoners came in and engaged in conversation with him, stating that they had just returned from the war. On leaving the saloon he was followed by the prisoners, who jostled against him, and when he reached the corner of Prince street O'Connor came in front of him and asked him what time it was, whereupon he took out his gold watch to give him the information, when O'Connor struck his hand and seized the watch, severing it from the chain.

THE UNION SQUARE GARROTERS PLEAD GUILTY TO ROBBERY.

Charles Gay and James Morrison were also jointly charged with the high crime of robbery. Mr. Wm. R. B. Wing, of Otsego, who was the complainant, stated that on the morning of the 14th of this month, about five on the morning of the 14th of this month, about five o'clock, while walking along Union square, near Fifteenth street, Gay approached him from behind and seized him around the neck and held him firmly, when Morrison suddenly appeared on the scene and commenced to rifle his pockets. Mr. Wing was held so tightly by the throat that it was impossible for him to make an outery. The robbers took his watch and pocketbook, containing three hundred dollars. The men escaped with their plunder, leaving their victim in a helpless condition; but, fortunately, some police officers saw the robbery and pursued and captured the highwaymen. The next day Mr. Wing positively identified the prisoners, and they were committed for trial. The case was so plain and of such an aggravated nature that they threw themselves upon the mercy of the Court and were remanded for sentence.

Jefferson Boylin pleaded guilty of an attempt at burglary in the third degree, the indictment charging him with breaking into the store of Charles Hussey, No. 36 Oliver street, and stealing three deliars worth of liquors and cigars. The recorder sentenced him to the State Prison for two years and four months.

THE SCOTTISH PICNIC.

Eghth Annual Excursion of the New York Caledonian Club-The Picnic of the Scason-Two Thousand People Par-ticipate-The Scotchmen in Their Glory,

A picnic is usually enjoyable. Slight things, however, occasionally interfere with and disarrange the best laid plans. A fog does so occasionally. A fog sided Early's stack at Codar creek on the ally. A fog sided Early's attack at Cedar creek on the 19th of last October, it formed one of the features of the late ocean regatta, and again, yesterday, a fog nlightly disarranged the programme which had been laid out for the celebration of the eighth annual pionic of the New York Caledonian Guh. A delay of one hour took place in the time of starting owing to the fog, which prevented the steamer Sylvan Grove making her usual morning trip from New Rochelle on time. She took the excursionists on board at South Sixth street, Williamsburg, at half-mart eight o'clock, being just one hour later than the WAITING AT THE DOCK was rather warm work, even at that early hour of the morning. Women with babies and young children arrived early, with military promptitude in fact, and mar-shalled their light infantry dangerously close to the water's edge for fear of being left behind. Every passing steamer was closely scrutinized by the anxious trons who appeared to derive great satisfaction from a rigorous performance of the double duty of looking after the children and looking out for the steamer. The ar-rival of several members of the Caledonian Club in kilts and tartan stockings, created a temporary diversion and raised every body's spirits. But the day grew warmer, and no breeze came from the river, when suddenly shout was raised of HERR SHE COMES.

Steaming around the head of the pier the Sylvan Grove hove in sight. The men at the wheel worked with frantic energy and soon she was made fast to the dock and a gang plank run ashore. The Caledonians manned the plank and handed their friends safely aboard.

All aboard was shouted, the lines cast off, and the boat steamed down to Fulton ferry, where her arrival was greeted by another large party. Handkerchiefs were waved, friendly nods and smiles exchanged. A few bundred more, men, women, children and baskets, were taken on board, and the steamer started for the foot of

CHARLTON STREET, NORTH RIVER, where the barge Walter Sands was moored. On board the barge were about twelve hundred people, and baskets innumerable. The steamer was lashed to the barge and together they started up the river en route for Dudley's Grove. The last stoppage was made at the foot of

where about two hundred people were in waiting. The whole number embarked on board the steamer and barge was about two thousand. All of them were known by some member of the Club, so that roughs and members of the light fingered fraternity had no chance to crowd in and exercise their peculiar avocations.

The sail up the river was something to be remembered for a life time. Walter S-ott sang— 'T were worth ten years of mortal life.
To view that scene of warlike strife.

To view that scene of warlike strife. But more years than the great bard of the North mentioned will elapse ere two thousand people are collected together under such enjoyable auspices as were those of yesterday. Men, women and children of all ages had a few hours of pleasurable enjoyment which they will all long remember. Robertson's string band had been engared, and to its music the lads and lasses of Bonnie Scotland danced stately quadrilles, merry reels and giddy waltzes. Colonel James L. Frazer, President, and Mr. Alexander McLean, Treasurer of the New York and New Rochelle Steamboat Company, contributed very much to the enjoyment of the company.

THE CALEDONIAN CLUB,

the enjoyment of the company, contributed very much to the enjoyment of the company.

THE CALEDONIAN CLUB, under whose auspices the picnic was inaugurated, is an association of our Scotch fellow citizens. In the year 1856 they resolved themselves into a society for the purpose of extending a helping hand to such of their countrymen as might require assistance in the country of their adoption, and also to raise funds to build a hall where the national games of Scotland can be kept up. They received a charter of incorporation in 1859, and have now three hundred and forty-five active members. The following are the names of the officers:—

President, or Chief, George Mitchell; Vice President, or Second Chieftain, John Goldie; Second Chieftain, or Treasurer, John Barrie; Third Chieftain, or Secretary, John Watt; Fourth Chieftain, or Corresponding Secretary, Lawrence Robertson.

The above inentioned gentlemen accompanied the excursionists yesterday.

DUDLEY'S GROVE.

The excursionists arrived at Dudley's Grove about halfpast twelve o'clock. Everybody looked out for a good place to go into camp—I mean, to get dinner. Dudley's Grove is about twenty miles from New York, up the North river, between Yonkers and Hastings. A green sward, shady trees and high rocks all formed features of the picturesque calculated to attract excursionists.

DINNER was the first thing to be thought of. Up among the cliffs the excursionists climbed, and soon the tables were covered with various edibies appropriate to the occasion. Roast lamb, pickled salmon, oysters, pickles, cake and all the other delicacies of the season soon covered the different tables.

The Charges Against School Trusteed to the morrow of the health.

New York, June 22, 1866.

As you publish the proceedings of the Board of Educ

tion, which reflects upon my conduct, may not I ask, through the columns of your influential journal, a suspension of public opinion until the committee—a very competent one—reports, which may "turn the tables" very effectually?
